

This is a detailed cadastral map of the Chesterplatz area in Berlin. The map shows a dense urban layout with numerous building footprints, each labeled with its specific use and identification number. Key streets include Turninger Straße to the west, Grabenstraße to the north, Turnstraße to the east, and Unter Wallbrunnstraße to the south. The central area is labeled 'Chesterplatz'. Building types are indicated by abbreviations such as 'Whs' (Warehouse), 'GFW' (Commercial Office), 'WChs' (Residential Office), 'Lagg' (Loggia), 'Tgar' (Terrace), 'Büro' (Office), 'Gar' (Garage), 'Schule' (School), 'Hotel', and 'Sportg' (Sports ground). The map also shows various public spaces, including 'Senigallia Platz' and 'Marktplatz'. The overall layout is characterized by a grid-like pattern of streets and buildings, with some larger, more complex structures interspersed among the smaller ones.
